Create|2030 is a new series of Talks to explore how investments in creativity can have a direct impact on achieving the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Create|2030 features artists, academics, policy makers and entrepreneurs from around the world. It introduces innovative ideas for the cultural and creative sectors that promote gender equality, fundamental freedoms, quality education, economic growth and decent jobs between countries.

This Create|2030 Talk will discuss policy initiatives taken to support diverse creative sectors, the institutional and legal challenges faced, and the emergence of innovative exchange and cooperation platforms in Thailand and the Asia-Pacific region.

KEY QUESTIONS FOR DEBATE

- How can the creative economy be understood as a new chance for sustainable development policies?
- What are the issues and challenges faced for designing solid institutional and legal environments that can foster a diversity of cultural expressions?
- How can governments, cultural organisations, creative practitioners, and citizens from around the world work together to address these issues and actively lead change?

SPEAKERS

- Danielle Cliche, Secretary of the 2005 Convention on the Protection and Promotion of Diversity of Cultural Expressions
- Savitri Suwansathit, Advisor to the Minister, Ministry of Culture, Thailand
- Magdalena Moreno Mujica, Executive Director of the International Federation of Arts Councils and Culture Agencies (IFACCA)

Moderator: Anupama Sekhar, Director of Culture Department, Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF)

The discussion will be followed by Q&A with the audience.
