The Tokyo Gameshow

Understanding ratification and implementation

With thanks to CDGDC

1-3 June 2017
Beijing, P.R. China
Question 1)

As of June 2017, how many Member States have ratified the “2011 Tokyo Convention”?

Bonus: Please name them.
Question 2)

When and where was the original Convention for Asia-Pacific signed?
Question 3)

Do the 21 State Parties that have ratified the 1983 Bangkok Convention also need to ratify the 2011 Tokyo Convention?

Bonus: Please explain.
Question 4)

How many Member States are needed for the 2011 Tokyo Convention to enter into force?

Bonus: Why is ratification important?
Question 5)

Please fill in the blank: Each Party shall take adequate measures for the development and maintenance of a _______________ that will provide higher education information.
Question 6)

Among the activities below, which is most clearly not in UNESCO Bangkok’s mandate as Secretariat?

a. Awareness raising
b. Policy advocacy
c. Building capacity
d. Ratification
e. Supporting national workshops
What is a “substantial difference” in the context of your country?
Describe one of the main challenges with regards to ratification and implementation of the 2011 Tokyo Convention.

Bonus: Please explain how we can overcome it.
Which Member State represented here today is ready to ratify?

All countries invited to comment...
Thank you!

Section for Educational Innovation and Skills Development,
UNESCO Asia-Pacific Regional Bureau for Education