SPOTLIGHT

The last quarter of 2021 kicked off with the publication of three op-eds addressing student's safe return to schools, youth participation in the COVID-19 recovery, and critical challenges facing women and girls in Afghanistan. The uptick in advocacy continued with additional media pieces on Southeast Asia's independent creative sector, cyberbullying, and tolerance for achieving 'positive peace' in Asia-Pacific. A popular Together for Peace Silent Manga Exhibition at the Bangkok Art and Culture Centre explored silent manga as a tool for showcasing different aspects of peace. Silent Manga Teacher's Companion proposing fun activities in classrooms will be widely distributed and translated by ASPnet schools. Closing out the quarter, the 'UN Ocean Decade' initiative in Asia-Pacific was launched and this year's UNESCO Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation were announced.
